

Keith Hollen

Eagle Eye Investigations Group

Keith Hollen began as a North Carolina Private Investigator Trainee in October, 1989 with a Charlotte PI Firm. During his 3 years as Trainee he worked over 3000 hours of domestic, child custody, corporate and non-compete surveillances.

In January 1993 Keith started Hollen Investigations, licensed in North & South Carolina with primary case load consisting of workers' compensation surveillances for insurance corporations and contract work for several national investigation companies. He continued to receive and work domestic – child custody cases from the general public, attorneys and other investigators.

In 1999, medical complications from Testicular Cancer and Crohn's Disease forced Keith to downsize his private investigation practice to a part-time roll. He later went to work in the banking industry credit/debit /check/fraud department and continued Hollen Investigations while conducting investigations for Goodwill Industries.

Eagle Eye Detective Agency & Associates was founded in 2003 by Keith and a business partner. Keith recommenced full-time investigations and specialized in all types of surveillance, locates, backgrounds, asset searches with employees and contacts all over North & South Carolina. He also was a bail agent for 3 years with primary in fugitive recovery that involved many hours of surveillance.

Keith formed Eagle Eye Investigations Group, LLC in August 2012 - and a full service, 24 hours – 7 days a week business with primary investigations consisting of workers' compensation surveillances, locates, backgrounds and services of process.

He is a member of SCALI, NCAPI, NCISS, NCAPPS, NAPPS along with the moderator of QC Meetings Yahoo Group and hosts monthly networking breakfast events along with continuing education conferences and seminars.
