

BASIC TRAINING for PRIVATE INVESTIGATORS

Monday January 6, 2014

Sponsored by the South Carolina Association of Legal Investigators

- 9:00 am WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION TO PRIVATE INVESTIGATING
David B. Mac Dougall has owned and operated Information Services in Columbia since 1979. He specializes in criminal defense, death penalty defense, insurance fraud and witness locating. Dave has studied and written extensively on the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act and is the creator of this program.
- 11:00 am P. I. LAWS and REGULATIONS
Capt. Joseph Dorton retired from SLED after forty years in law enforcement. While Captain of SLED Regulatory he authored the law that governs and regulates South Carolina's Private Investigators.
- NOON LUNCH
- 1:00 pm SURVEILLANCE TECHNIQUES AND OPERATIONS
In 2011 Kyle Taylor retired from the Richland County Sheriff's Department as a Sergeant with the Narcotics Division. He now owns and operates Southern Investigative Services, LLC.
- 2:00 pm ACCIDENT INVESTIGATION, REPORT WRITING and PHOTOGRAPHY
Bob Joseph owns and operates Alpha PI Services, LLC in Greenville. He has conducted numerous civil traffic accident investigations as well as producing hundreds of investigative reports.
- 3:00 pm BASICS OF COMPUTER FORENSICS
Chip Johnson retired as Deputy to the Assistant Director of Investigative Services for SLED after 28 years in law enforcement. He is now a licensed Private Investigator and President of The Johnson Group LLC.
- 4:30 pm ELECTRONIC SURVEILLANCE and GADGETS
Don Kneee is an expert in Technical Surveillance Equipment and has taught this subject to over 4,000 police officers and private investigators since retiring from the U.S. Army. Don will present the latest in video, GPS and electronic equipment available to the Private Investigator.

www.SCALInv.com