

Ruth Reynolds
Reynolds Professional Service, Inc.

Ruth is the owner and operator of Reynolds Professional Service, Inc. She has been a licensed Private Investigator for over twenty years and a professional process server for more than twenty-four years. She founded the first process serving company in North Carolina and is the Founder and President of the first state association for process servers (NCAAPS). Ruth has been an instructor and speaker on services of process and has served on the board of directors for the National Association of Professional Process Servers (NAPPS) since 2010. She has attended numerous education conferences in other states and she monitors legislation in 8 states for the NAPPS committee chairman. The North Carolina Private Protective Service Board has approved her training for ceu credits. As an Investigator, Ruth served as president on the board of the NCAPI for almost 10 years. She is currently licensed in North and South Carolina and is also a member of SCALI. Ruth is active in her community with development disabilities, substance abuse and mental illness. She serves on the board for Individual and Family Advocacy Council for Easter Seals and other community areas. She is active with Laws for Paws, Animal Welfare Investigations in North and South Carolina and active with the local Human Society.